What Do You Think of This Magazine?

A reader poll to rate the publication

Cultura & Saúde Editorial

Received for publication in June 2000 · Section: Article · Language: English

ABSTRACT

The content consists of an interactive poll addressed to the magazine's readers, asking them to rate the publication. There is no developed text or argument: only a voting form with five response options — "So-so," "Good," "Very good," "The best," and "What is this?" It is an element of audience participation and feedback, without editorial authorship or thematic development. Its purpose is to gather readers' opinions on the perceived quality of the magazine, functioning as a simple instrument of interaction between the publication and its audience.
